IN THE MATTER OF The Ontario Heritage Act 1974, Statutes of Ontario, 1974, Chapter 122;

AND IN THE MATTER OF the lands and premises known municipally as Victoria Memorial Museum in the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario.

NOTICE OF BY-LAW

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa on the 5th day of September 1979, enacted By-law Number 235-79 designating the lands and buildings known municipally as Victoria Memorial Museum as a property of architectural and historical value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act 1974, Statutes of Ontario, 1974, Chapter 122.

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR THE DESIGNATION:

"Victoria Memorial Museum, at 240 McLeod Street is recommended for designation as being of historical and architectural interest. Constructed of stone, the museum was erected from 1905 to 1912, during a period of much government expansion. It was one of the series of buildings designed by David Ewart, Chief Architect of the Department of Public Works, all in similar Late-Victorian Gothic style. The Museum was located as an appropriate beginning to a stately avenue along Metcalfe Street, leading to Parliament Hill. The overall exterior character remains expressive of this heritage quality, in spite of the early removal of exterior turrets and part of the main tower because of the settlement of foundation. The Senate and House of Commons met in the Museum for four years following the fire of 1916.

A copy of this By-law may be obtained at the office of the City Clerk.

DATED at Ottawa this 27th day of October , 1979.
