A by-law of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa to designate 375 Sussex Drive to be of historic or architectural value or interest;

WHEREAS The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, authorizes the Council of a municipality to enact by-laws to designate real property, including all the buildings and structures thereon, to be of historic or architectural value or interest;

AND WHEREAS the Council of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa has caused to be served upon the owner of the lands and premises known as 375 Sussex Drive, more particularly described in Schedule "A" hereto, and upon the Ontario Heritage Foundation, notice of intention to so designate the aforesaid real property and has caused such notice of intention to be published in The Ottawa Journal newspaper having a general circulation in the City of Ottawa, once a week for three consecutive weeks, namely on June 20, June 27 and July 4, 1978;

AND WHEREAS the reasons for the designation are set out as Schedule "B" hereto;

AND WHEREAS no notice of objection to the said proposed designation has been served upon the Clerk of the municipality;

THEREFORE the Council of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa enacts as follows:-

1. There is designated as being of historic or architectural value or interest the real property, more particularly described in Schedule "A" hereto, known as 375 Sussex Drive.
2. The City Solicitor is hereby authorized to cause a copy of this by-law to be registered against the property described in Schedule "A" hereto in the proper Land Registry Office.
3. The City Clerk is hereby authorized to cause a copy of this by-law to be served upon the owner of the property described in Schedule "A", and upon the Ontario Heritage Foundation, and to cause notice of this by-law to be published in a newspaper having a general circulation in the City of Ottawa.

4. The Schedules attached hereto and marked Schedule "A" and Schedule "B" form part of this by-law and all notations, references and other information contained therein shall be as much a part of this by-law as if all the matters and information set forth by the said schedules were all fully described herein.

GIVEN under the corporate seal of the City of Ottawa this 16th day of August, 1978.

Deputy CITY CLERK

(SGD.) MARION DEWAR
ACTING MAYOR

SCHEDULE "A"

ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Ottawa in the Regional Municipality of Ottawa-Carleton and Province of Ontario, which may be more particularly described as follows:

The whole of block lettered "N" on the east side of Sussex Street between St. Patrick Street and Church Street (now "Guigues Avenue"), the whole of lot numbered one on the south side of Church Street (Guigues Avenue), and the whole of lot numbered one on the north side of St. Patrick Street, both lots adjoining said block "N", and as all are shown on a plan of part of Lower Town in Ottawa by J. Stoughton Dennis, Provincial Land Surveyor, dated the twentieth day of October, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine and amended by him on the eighth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, which said plan was registered in the Registry Office for the City of Ottawa on the nineteenth day of October, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, as number 42482.

SCHEDULE "B"

"Notre Dame Basilica at 375 Sussex Drive is recommended for designation as being of historical and architectural value. Erected in 1841-53 and consecrated in 1846, the Basilica was completed in stages through the 1890's. Notable additions include the twin towers reaching to 180 feet, erected in 1858. Following initial construction in the Classical Revival Style, the building was completed largely in an interpretation of Gothic Revival. The comparatively severe, flat facade belies an ornate interior with a detailed vaulted ceiling, extensive woodwork, carved alters, and 30 life sized figures, comprising some of Ottawa's finest craft work.

The Basilica is the oldest surviving church in Ottawa, the seat of the archbishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Ottawa, and a landmark of old Bytown."

IN THE MATTER OF The Ontario Heritage Act
1974, Statutes of Ontario, 1974, Chapter 122;

AND IN THE MATTER OF the lands and premises known municipally as Notre Dame Basilica, 375 Sussex Drive in the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario.

NOTICE OF BY-LAW

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa on the 16th day of August, 1978, enacted By-law Number 267-78 designating the lands and buildings known municipally as Notre Dame Basilica, 375 Sussex Drive, as a property of architectural and historical value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act 1974, Statutes of Ontario, 1974, Chapter 122.

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR THE DESIGNATION:

"Notre Dame Basilica at 375 Sussex Drive is recommended for designation as being of historical and architectural value. Erected in 1841-53 and consecrated in 1846, the Basilica was completed in stages through the 1890's. Notable additions include the twin towers reaching to 180 feet, erected in 1858.
Following initial construction in the Classical Revival Style, the building was completed largely in an interpretation of Gothic Revival. The comparatively severe, flat facade belies an ornate interior with a detailed vaulted ceiling, extensive woodwork, carved alters, and 30 life sized figures, comprising some of Ottawa's finest craft work.

The Basilica is the oldest surviving church in Ottawa, the seat of the archbishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Ottawa, and a landmark of old Bytown."
