SCHEDULE "B"
TO BY-LAW NO. 140-16
of the
CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

45 McNaughton Street in Cambridge was designated because of its cultural heritage significance.

Description of Property

The subject property is a one and a half storey granite and limestone residence located in the East Galt section of Cambridge.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The subject property is located in the east Galt section of Cambridge. It is recommended for designation because of its cultural heritage significance. The residence has been constructed in the Queen Anne style of architecture. This style was popular between 1880 and 1910 and the residence has an estimated construction date of 1880. The house features a dominant front facing gable, an asymmetrical façade, a gabled roof and a partial front porch. The home is constructed with a mix of granite and limestone. The limestone is used over the door and windows as an accent. Granite is used as the principal building material. The mortar has been highlighted in white to emphasis the stone block construction.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The key exterior attributes which characterize the cultural heritage value of 45 McNaughton Street are the:

- Location on the lot;
- Asymmetrical façade with irregular shaped, steeply pitched roof;
- Granite building materials with limestone arches above the door and windows on the first storey;
- White ribbon pointed mortar;
- Limestone rounded top voussoirs on the second storey;
- Three panel bay window with carved woodwork and flat roof;
- Partial, single storey porch on the west elevation with decorative brackets, mouldings and columns;
- Single panel wood door with transom; and
- Limestone Welsh Arch above the primary front entrance door facing the street.
