(8) This Document provides as follows:

Under the Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, sec 29 the Council of the Corporation of the Village of Sturgeon Point has passed By-law #93-12 designating the Sturgeon Point Union Church of architectural and historical value or interest.

The current Sturgeon Point Union Church was built in 1915, constructed of wood with a shingle roof, in a basically circular plan with gables and with opening windows. The apex of the roof is supported by a central wood pillar terminating in a gothic-style fan at the ceiling which supports the cupola belfrey.

This structure replaced a prior building, and has formed the central religious focus for the Village of Sturgeon Point during summer. It is non-denominational, and is important to the community not only for its unique architecture and structure, but also for its historical significance to the development of the Village.
