SCHEDULE "A"*REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

The property at 6 Howard Street (James Chalmers Building) is recommended for designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for its cultural resource value or interest. Built in 1914, and originally owned by James Chalmers, 6 Howard Street was constructed as an apartment building with 19 units. Standing on the north west corner of Howard Street and Glen Road, the James Chalmers Building is architecturally significant as an excellent example of Victorian design.

Heritage attributes of the building are found on the exterior walls and roof. Clad in red brick with stone details, the James Chalmers Building stands three storeys above a raised basement. The base floor is clad in grey stone and the walls are faced with red brick. The flat roof has a bracketed cornice.

The south elevation is divided into three bays. All of the window openings are flat-headed. In the outer bays, large bay windows rise three and a half storeys. On the ground floor, the central bay contains the main entrance with two doorways (partially below grade). The fenestration of the top three floors within the central bay consists of paired window openings on each floor, which originally contained French doors. Two courses of stone reach between the paired window openings and on the third floor, is a carved stone cartouche. All of the window openings and the doorways on the south elevation have wide stone lintels above and narrow sills below. The southeast and southwest corners of the building are decorated with stone quoins. Some of the stone detail is now painted. Stone band courses wrap around the side (east and west walls).

The east elevation, along a laneway, is distinguished by three-sided bay windows with wood cladding that are placed near either end of the wall. At the centre of the wall, a square bay window with quoins and flat-headed window openings with stone trim rises four storeys. An entrance is incorporated in the ground floor. The remainder of the east wall has flat-headed window openings with decorative brickwork beneath the sills and single and tripartite arc-headed window openings with brick voussoirs. A brick chimney marks the east wall. The west wall displays the same features as the east elevation. The rear wall (north), while altered, blends three-storey wood-clad bay windows with the arc-headed openings introduced on the side elevations.
