SCHEDULE 'B' to BY-LAW NO. 3-99

A date stone marking the year 1912 announces this red brick structure as a building of heritage significance. The foundation is of stone rubble and is visible. The roof is medium hipped style, originally of cedar, along with remodelled soffits. Windows are original style but new, having stone hug sills and still bearing original shelters that have been repainted. The interior and exterior doors are all original and have been repainted. The original stone cottage still exists on the grounds, although in ruins.
