Notice of Intention to Designate 2042 Jerseyville Road West, Ancaster

WHAT: In the matter of the Ontario Heritage Act and the property in the City of Hamilton known municipally as 2042 Jerseyville Road West, Ancaster notice is hereby given that the City of Hamilton intends to designate this property as being a property of cultural heritage value.

WHY: The property at 2042 Jerseyville Road West possesses cultural heritage value, expressed in historical associations with the Kelly family who contributed to the development of the Alberton settlement, as well as to the early agricultural settlement of Ancaster. The farmhouse located on this property has architectural value as an example of a one-and-a-half storey, vernacular interpretation of the Georgian architectural style, with Neo-Classical elements. The farmhouse is also a rare surviving example of Pre-Confederation frame construction. The Reasons for Designation apply to all elevations and the roofline of the former farmhouse including all façades, entranceways, windows, and brick chimneys, together with construction materials of brick, wood, and glazing, building techniques, and landscape features.

The Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest, Description of Heritage Attributes and supporting Cultural Heritage Assessment may be found online via www.hamilton.ca or viewed at the Office of the City Clerk, 71 Main Street West, 1st Floor, Hamilton, Ontario, during regular business hours.

HOW & WHY: Any person may, within 30 days after the date of the publication of the Notice, serve written notice of their objections to the proposed designation, together with a statement for the objection and relevant facts.

Dated at Hamilton, this 28th day of April, 2017.

R. Caterini
City Clerk
Hamilton, Ontario

STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST AND DESCRIPTION OF HERITAGE ATTRIBUTES

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

Description of the Property

The property at 2042 Jerseyville Road West is located on the north half of Part Lot 24, Concession 3 in the former Town of Ancaster. Once part of a larger farmed parcel of land, the property now comprises approximately one acre (0.41 ha) which includes a one-and-a-half storey frame dwelling and a one-storey wooden outbuilding. Known locally as the Kelly House, the frame dwelling was constructed circa 1859 and was originally clad in clapboard (now clad in aluminum siding). The dwelling was built in the Georgian architectural style and includes elements of Neo-Classical architecture. There was a rear addition which was added to the south façade in the 1990s. On the original frame dwelling, only one window has been replaced and wooden shutters have been added to the façade windows. Overall, the original dwelling has had few alterations and largely contains an intact interior and exterior form.

Heritage Value

The property at 2042 Jerseyville Road West possesses cultural heritage value, expressed in historical associations with the Kelly family who contributed to the development of the Alberton settlement as well as to the early agricultural settlement of Ancaster. The farmhouse located on this property also has architectural value as an example of a one-and-a-half storey, vernacular interpretation of the Georgian architectural style, with Neo-Classical elements. The farmhouse is also a rare surviving example of Pre-Confederation frame construction. The Reasons for Designation apply to all elevations and the roofline of the former farmhouse including all façades, entranceways, windows, and brick chimneys, together with construction materials of brick, wood, and glazing, building techniques, and landscape features.
