White Gothic Revival House - 3 Maria St.

Reasons For Designation

This house, built prior to 1878, was owned by several local businessmen at various times. The first owner of note was Frederick Jeffery. The Jeffery family's association with the town begins with Stephen Jeffery who supplied the stone for Officers Quarters at the Establishments in the 1830's. The family is remembered today in the street names of that area of town: eg. Lucy, Jeffery, Edward, Harriet, Maria, Anne.

Later we find that Mr. G. H. Wright and Mr. C. E. Wright, both local businessmen, were owners. G. H. Wright was the town's mayor in 1900.

The building's style, Gothic Revival, is present elsewhere in town but this is by far the best example. The building is shaped in a cross pattern and has a high gable roof construction. The east, west and north gable trim is very decorative with the gable's peaks being adorned with finials.

The same type of treatment that adorns the gable ends is carried through the fascia of the dormers on the east and west sides of the north wing.

To add to the building's basic asymmetry are the projecting bays which adorn the north and east facades.
