Reasons for Designation

HISTORICAL

This house was built in 1863 by Thomas Sleigh, a local house and sign painter. Two prominent owners of the house were John Tait Mathison, a famous cricket player, and Lawrence Agg, a Whitby Town Councillor and Deputy Reeve in the 1940's.

ARCHITECTURAL

The house was originally constructed of board and batten. It was bricked over in 1906 by John Mathison. A unique feature of the house is that it is made up of four bays on the front facade with the front door and second storey gable window off-set to one side.
