Reasons for Designation:

Huron Country Playhouse is a valuable asset and resource to the Township of Stephen and surrounding communities. The Board of Directors are undertaking special efforts to safeguard the heritage of Huron Country Playhouse and to recognize its value and importance to the area it serves. Translating this recognition into a tangible form of protection for Huron Country Playhouse is important to the heritage of the theatre and the community within the Province of Ontario. Once designated, Huron Country Playhouse will gain a measure of protection from demolition or unsympathetic alteration. Designation also works hand in hand with other forms of recognition. Every community in Ontario possesses a unique and special heritage that is important to the Province. Huron Country Playhouse, although a modest structure, is precious evidence of the variety and quality of theatrical and human history that has survived in our community.
